

VOLUNTEER FORM
DISCLOSURE AND AUTHORIZATION FOR CONSUMER
AND/OR INVESTIGATIVE CONSUMER REPORT

Volunteer Organization: _____

In connection with your application to become a volunteer with the above listed volunteer organization (hereinafter “the Organization”) this notice is provided to inform you that a “consumer report” and/or “investigative consumer report”, as defined by the Fair Credit Reporting Act (15 U.S.C. § 1681), may be obtained from a consumer reporting agency. These reports may include information about your character, general reputation, personal characteristics and mode of living, whichever are applicable. The report may also contain information about you relating to criminal history, motor vehicle records such as driving records, verification of education or employment history, social media or other background checks. They may involve personal interviews with sources such as your neighbors, friends or associates. You have the right, upon written request made within a reasonable time after receipt of this notice, to request disclosure of the nature and scope of any investigative consumer report to the Organization and National Crime Search, Inc., 3452 E. Joyce Blvd., Fayetteville, AR 72703 – 888-527-3282. For information about National Crime Search, Inc.’s privacy practices see www.nationalcrimesearch.com. The scope of this notice and authorization is not limited to the present and, if you do serve as a volunteer, will continue and allow the Organization to conduct future background screenings for retention or reassignment, unless revoked by you in writing.

Acknowledgement and Authorization

You hereby authorize the obtaining of a consumer report and/or investigative consumer report at any time after receipt of this authorization by the Organization, and if you do serve as a volunteer, throughout your service, as permitted by law.

CALIFORNIA RESIDENTS

California Residents – this summary of the provisions of California Civil Code section 1786.22 is being provided to you pursuant to state law.

Your landlord or property manager intends to obtain information about you from an investigative consumer reporting agency, as defined under California law, for tenancy purposes or in connection with your rental application.

Under California law you are entitled to visually inspect all files maintained about you by an investigative consumer reporting agency (ICRA), such as National Crime Search, Inc., upon request and presentation of proper identification during normal business hours and on reasonable notice as follows:

- In person. You may request a copy of your file. The ICRA may charge you for the actual copying costs associated with providing you with a copy of your file.
- By telephone. A summary of all information contained in the ICRA’s file about you will be provided to you via telephone, if you have made a written request for telephone disclosure, and the toll charge, if any, for the telephone call is prepaid by or charged directly to you.
- By certified mail. You may make a written request for copies to be sent to a specified addressee. ICRA’s complying with requests for certified mailings shall not be liable for disclosures to third parties caused by mishandling of mail after such mailings leave the ICRA.

“Proper Identification” includes documents such as a valid driver’s license, social security account number, military identification card, and credit cards. If an ICRA is unable to reasonably identify you on the basis of these documents, they may require additional information concerning your employment and personal or family history in order to verify your identity.

The ICRA will provide trained personnel to explain any information furnished to you and will provide a written explanation of any coded information contained in files maintained on you. This written explanation will be provided whenever a file is provided to you for visual inspection.

You may be accompanied by one other person of your choosing, who must furnish reasonable identification. An ICRA may require you to furnish a written statement granting permission to the ICRA to discuss your file in such person’s presence.
